1.5 Research Methodology and Support (SOW 6.3) (U)

1.5.1 Committees (SOW 6.3.1) (U)

(U) We propose to use the existing committees as support and quality control for methodological and policy issues. These committees are the Scientific Oversight Committee (SOC), the Institutional Review Board (IRB), and the Policy Oversight Committee (POC).

1.5.1.1 The Scientific Oversight Committee (U)

(U) The five voting members of the SOC are respected scientists from the following disciplines: physics, astronomy, statistics, neuroscience, and psychology. The membership is as follows:

• Steven A Hillyard, Ph.D.	Professor of Neuroscience, University of California, San Diego
• S. James Press, Ph.D.	Professor of Statistics, University of California, Riverside
• Garrison Raptund, M.D.	Liaison with the Institutional Review Board (see below)

• Philip G. Zimbardo, Ph.D.	Professor of Psychology, Stanford University

(U) The SOC is tasked with three major responsibilities:

- Review and approve all experimental protocols prior to the collection of data.
- Critically review all experimental final reports as if they were submissions to technical scientific journals. All remarks are in writing and are included in the final technical report to the sponsor.
- Suggest directions for further research.

(U) In addition to these three responsibilities, the SOC members are encouraged to exercise un-announced drop-in privileges to view experiments in progress.

1.5.1.2 Institutional Review Board (U)

(U) The IRB's responsibility is to assure the safety of human subjects in experiments and to assure the sponsor that all research involving the use of human subjects is in compliance with all appropriate federal regulations.
